Conversational Spanish for Beginners

Whether for work or pleasure, Spanish can open the doors to incredible adventures, increased business, and work success!

Whether for work or pleasure, Spanish can open the doors to incredible adventures, increased business, and work success!

This is a beginning Spanish course designed to develop skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing on a basic level. Students will acquire basic vocabulary and structures of Spanish and develop an understanding of its cultural context.

Summer 2014
August 9 – November 8
Saturdays from 9:00 am-12:00 pm
Cost: $250
CRN 95423
Location: South Campus
13735 Beamer Rd., Houston, TX 77089

For more information call the Office of Continuing and Professional Development (CPD) at (281) 542-2020

http://www.sanjac.edu/continuing-professional-development/community/educationlanguages