Students will receive training in First Aid, ambulance and extrication, EKG and cardiovascular simulation and sonography, and fire extinguishing. This will be a hands-on, action-packed week that will help prepare the student for many life-threatening events. This camp is hosted by San Jacinto College’s CPD Healthcare Occupations and Central Campus EMT departments.

Camp cost is being subsidized in part by HCA Bayshore Medical Center. Space is limited, so please register early.