This course will help you understand the language and the importance of (HIPPA) for privacy & CPT-4 and ICD-9 Codes for security.

You will also learn basic computer skills and use a generic Medical Office Simulation software to learn Front and Back Office procedures including:

- Appointment Scheduling and Electronic Patient registration
- Manual and electronic medical billing and posting procedures
- Patient collections and billing for secondary insurance

Click here to register