San Jacinto College

Brand Philosophy
Date: September 12, 2007

Situation
  o San Jacinto College consists of three campuses and multiple extension centers.
  o The college is undertaking reorganization as a “one-college” initiative directed by the Board and the Chancellor and supported by a series of brand alignment training exercises.
  o Brand articulation research, across all constituent groups, has been conducted to provide insight into the current San Jacinto College brand promise, mission statement and institutional values. The research is the guide for the brand philosophy and any subsequent identity and design decisions made for the redevelopment of the logo, tagline, and college seal for San Jacinto College.

Marketing/Communications/Objective
  o Develop a single logo and tagline for San Jacinto College that accurately reflects the institution’s brand promise, mission statement and institutional values. The logo needs to provide a single identity while providing an avenue for each campus, division, and department to have a logo that locks-up to the overall college logo.

Target Audience
  o All San Jacinto College constituents including: students, staff, faculty, administration, alumni and community partners.

Relevant Research Findings
  o San Jacinto College is perceived as a convenient, affordable and accessible learning environment of the highest quality.
  o San Jacinto College is perceived as a community of helpful and supportive professionals who care deeply about their student’s success.
  o Many constituents share a concern that the cumulative baggage surrounding the words “community college” and “junior college” are a detriment to San Jacinto College’s image/reputation. They do not feel as though the college is perceived as being collegiate.
  o San Jacinto College is perceived to be an environment that understands the diversity of its students.
  o San Jacinto College is perceived as a place that does a good job at preparing students for whatever is next in their lives.
o Many constituents perceive San Jacinto College as a conduit to student success, but not necessarily a destination for student success.

o For many students, San Jacinto College is the only opportunity for success.

o San Jacinto College is perceived to have a reputation for teaching excellence.

Purpose

  o Constituents perceive San Jacinto College as a place to help students achieve their personal and professional goals.

Values

  o Constituents perceive San Jacinto College as an institution that:
    ▪ Cares deeply for its students and the community
    ▪ Is committed to excellence
    ▪ Acts with integrity
    ▪ Fosters diversity
    ▪ Has a can-do spirit
    ▪ Is innovative ▪ Strives for collaboration