

FIND A COOL CAREER IN THE HVACR INDUSTRY

Heating,
Ventilation,
Air Conditioning and Refrigeration

$45,457

The median annual salary for HVACR mechanics and installers for the Gulf Coast region - and pay increases with experience!

Source: TexasWages.com

Get on your way to a successful HVACR career with a certificate or associate of applied science degree.

48,000+

new jobs in the HVACR field through 2026!

Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics

Potential HVACR Career Path:

TECHNICIAN

SUPERVISOR

LEADERSHIP

OWNER

JOB SECURITY

HVACR jobs are not automated or outsourced.

Projected increase in HVACR employment through 2026 - much faster than average for all occupations.

15%
INCREASE

Employers prefer applicants with postsecondary education.

In as little as one semester, you can be registered and certified with the Texas Department of License and registrations.

AREAS WHERE HVACR TECHNICIANS WORK

Source: refrigerationschool.com

Air Conditioning/
Cooling Units

Residential Homes

Commercial Businesses

Refrigerators and Freezers

Semi-truck

Residential

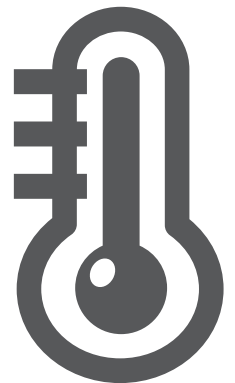

Grocery Store

Ventilation
Systems

Heating
Units

SAN JACINTO COLLEGE