Orientation Leaders
2014
“I love how I can interact with the first-year students and let them know they’re not alone. I’m able to connect with them and share my experiences as a first-year student.”
NiNi Nguyen

“I want to inspire people and assist them through difficulties, especially the international students from different parts of the world.”
Isaac Lorenzo

“You will meet many people from different backgrounds with different ideas, but if you take the time, you will be able to learn from them.”
Jonhatan Lorenzo

“I have gained a lot, like confidence to speak in front of a lot of people and confidence to speak in English.”
Areli Tamayo

“I fell in love with this job immediately because all my coworkers were extremely sweet and welcoming.”
Nathan Figueroa

“The orientation leadership program is teaching me how to react to different scenarios as well as [learn about] my own strengths and weaknesses.”
Nedra Johnson

“I love to lead and teach people something that they do not know.”
Kaylee Perez

“The tutoring, writing center, computer labs, and beautiful new science building at South campus are things to be excited about.”
Leigh-Ann Joseph

“College can be really confusing and scary so I wanted to help ease students’ anxiety. I love my college and I want other students to love it too.”
Paula Torrado Plazas

“One of my goals is becoming an orientation leader and a role model for my family, especially my siblings, to follow and to lead them toward a better life style. Paving and strengthening my skills as a leader will assure my role as an older sister.”
