

COVID-19 Updates

IMPORTANT UPDATES FROM VETERAN SERVICES REGARDING COVID-19

The following information was received from the VA:

Our processing offices will be making no adjustments to student's awards regarding COVID-19.

As a reminder, Education Service has determined that students who have started their enrollment period and attended at least in part as resident training are eligible to continue to receive the MHA at the in-resident rate for the entire enrollment period.

If your GI Bill students have questions about their specific circumstance, please have them contact the Education Call Center at: 1-888-442-4551 between 8 AM and 7 PM Eastern Time, Monday-Friday.

San Jacinto College Veterans Services department is monitoring daily information from the following web pages to stay up to date on next steps for veterans and their dependents receiving educational benefits. The college is altering operations but continue to serve and support your educational goals. Information may change daily and any specific veteran information will be conveyed to you via our BB Veteran Services website and the FAQ at this link:
