A REQUIRED ONLINE TRAINING COURSE FOR STUDENTS ON THE PREVENTION OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Sexual misconduct unfortunately affects many students. San Jacinto College requires all students to complete Not Anymore training. This course teaches students how to prevent, report, and get help for sexual misconduct.

Students must complete this free online training during their first term of enrollment (or your first semester). By not completing the course, a hold (NA Hold) will be placed on your account, and you will not be able to register for classes.

TO ACCESS THE TRAINING:
1. Log in to your SOS account.
2. Click on the student concerns tab, and click the link for “Campus Sexual Misconduct Policy – Prevention and Awareness.”
3. Click on “Not Anymore Awareness and Prevention Training.”

Learn more at sanjac.edu/not-anymore. You can also visit the educational planning, counseling, and completion or admissions office on your campus. For help accessing your SOS account, visit www.sanjac.edu/soslogin.
